Organizations Honored

The US Peace Registry recognizes the work of over eighty organizations that are role models for a broad range of peace and antiwar actions and activities.

ALL PEOPLES – a Unitarian Universalist Congregation
Founded in 1960, ALL PEOPLES (previously Thomas Jefferson Unitarian Church) is a member of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations and has adopted its Statement of Conscience, “Creating Peace,” which concludes: “In reverence for all life, we covenant to practice peace at all levels of human interaction.”

The church helped found Interfaith Paths to Peace in Louisville, KY. On a Veterans Day, the church saluted veterans and a conscientious objector, and held a special collection to benefit the US Peace Memorial Foundation. Founding Member, US Peace Memorial Foundation.

The American Friends Service Committee
AFSC, a Quaker organization founded in 1917, focuses on building lasting peace with justice. The organization draws people from many backgrounds and countries into work to prevent and end conflict, establish fair and equitable economies, accountable governments and systems, and develop healthy, inclusive societies. AFSC works to end and prevent wars, heal individuals and communities after conflict, and create just conditions that make violence obsolete.

Examples of this organization’s activities include work on the truth and reconciliation process in Burundi, youth film festival, art exhibits such as Eyes Wide Open and Windows and Mirrors that expose the human costs of war, a framework for foreign policy, advocacy work to reduce the military budget and increase funding for real community needs, online activism, and various other educational programs and sponsored events. AFSC received the Nobel Peace Prize in 1947, along with British Quakers, on behalf of all Quakers’ efforts to heal the wounds of war. US Peace Prize nominee, 2014.

Black Alliance for Peace
Founded in 2017, BAP’s mission is to recapture and redevelop the historic antivar, anti-imperialist, and pro-peace positions of the radical black movement. The organization works to oppose war through educational activities, organizing and supporting campaigns, and other sponsored events. Campaigns have included Divest From the Military; No Compromise, No Retreat, to stop war against African/Black people in the U.S. and abroad; Demilitarize the United States and the World; U.S. Out of Africa; and the BAP 2020 Candidate Campaign, which calls on all elected officials to address issues of war and militarism by signing a 2020 Candidate Pledge, asking individuals to sign a 2020 Candidate Petition, and asking organizations to sign a 2020 Election Campaign Endorsement Form. Other actions include a blog, media interviews, and public speaking engagements. BAP is a founding member of the Coalition Against U.S. Foreign Military Bases. Received the 2020 International Hero for Peace Award, given by Mount Diablo Peace and Justice Center, CA.

Atrium Society: The Center for the Education of Children in Conflict Founded in 1984, the purpose of Youth Peace Literacy is twofold: to provide free online access to its award-winning peace-educating books which help young people to understand and alleviate the fundamental source of human conflict—psychological conditioned thinking created by the primitive biological brain—and to also offer supplemental regional and online training certification courses that provide teachers with its peace educating curriculum. The organization developed an online peace museum and the exhibit Creating Battlefield Warriors for Combat.

The Center for Constitutional Rights
CCR, founded in 1966, is a non-profit legal and educational organization committed to the creative use of law as a positive force for social change. The organization understands that U.S. militarism does not advance human rights. The organization litigates, advocates, and supports cases that deal with an array of issues connected to militarism and war, including targeting killing in Al-Aulaqi v. Panetta, private military contractor misconduct at Abu Ghraib, and holding high-ranking officials accountable for their involvement in the U.S. torture program. It joined with Iraqi human rights organizations, U.S. veterans and allies to launch a joint initiative, Right to Heal, demanding that the human rights impact of the war in Iraq be assessed and concrete action be taken towards rehabilitation and reparations for those impacted by the war’s lasting effects. The organization has published books, articles, and reports about wars and the issues they have raised including The Trial of Donald Rumsfeld: A Prosecution by Book, Articles of Impeachment against George W. Bush, and Amend the War Powers Resolution. CCR has received awards and grants including the National Peacemaker Award, the Lennon Ono Grant for Peace and the War Resisters League Peace Award.

Christian Peacemaker Teams
Founded in 1988, CPT arose from a call in 1984 for Christians to devote the same discipline and self-sacrifice to nonviolent peacemaking that armies devote to war. To promote nonviolent alternatives to war, the organization places violence-reduction teams in crisis situations and militarized areas, around the world, at the invitation of local peace and human rights workers, therefore embracing the vision of unarmed intervention waged by committed peacemakers. Actions include webinars and campaigns, non-violence training, books, and other literature. The organization sends delegations worldwide to help communities that are victims of violent oppression and/or human rights violations.

CODEPINK: Women For Peace
A women-initiated grassroots movement founded in 2002, CODEPINK works to end U.S.-funded wars and occupations, to challenge militarism globally, and to redirect our resources into healthcare, education, green jobs, and other life-affirming activities. The group opposes the U.S. war in Afghanistan, Venezuela and other countries, U.S. economic sanctions, the detention center at Guantanamo, U.S. support for the Israeli occupation of Palestine and repressive regimes, and advocates divesting from the U.S. war machine and boycotting Saudi Arabia. They organize protests, vigils, educational programs, congressional briefings, marches, online campaigns, and other events. Rooted in a network of local organizers, online supporters and donors, with an emphasis on joy and humor, their tactics include satire, street theater, visuals, civil resistance, directly challenging decision-makers in government and corporations, and of course, wearing pink. Campaigns have included protests at the CIA Director’s Senate confirmation hearing and the president’s national security speech at the National Defense University, hand delivered “Women Say No War on Iran” petition to the president’s spouse, “War is Not Green,” “Close Guantanamo,” “Arrest the War Criminals,” “Women Say NO to War,” Camp Casey, “New Good Neighbor Policy,” “Mother’s Day for Peace,” “Peace Positions for Presidential Candidates,” “Stop Hate/Dump Trump,” “International Day of Action: No War With Iran,” cultivating a “Local Peace Economy,” and other actions including projecting antiwar messages onto a Trump hotel, a blog, and promoting books: Drone Warfare: Killing by Remote Control and Stop the Next War Now! Effective Responses to Violence and Terrorism. See tenth anniversary video for more details. Founding Member, US Peace Memorial Foundation. US Peace Prize recipient. “In recognition of inspirational antiwar leadership and creative grassroots activism,” 2014

CONSISTENT LIFE

Consistent Life
Founded in 1987, Consistent Life is an international network that connects issues, builds bridges, and strengthens the case against each kind of socially-approved killing, including war, by consistently opposing them all by placing ads in national and local media, calls to Congress, marches, and videos. Members seek a revolution in thinking and feeling, an affirmation of peace and nonviolence, an infinite gentleness, a value for the life, happiness and welfare of every person, and political and structural changes to bring this about.

COSTS OF WAR

Costs of War Project
Founded in 2011, this is a research collaboration housed at Brown University’s Watson Institute for International and Public Affairs. More than fifty scholars and experts from a variety of disciplines and backgrounds, based at different universities and other organizations, are engaged in the work. Through ongoing research and analysis of the impacts of the United States’ post-9/11 wars in Afghanistan, Iraq, Pakistan, Somalia, Syria, Yemen, and elsewhere, the group seeks to shed light on the deeper, unacknowledged human, economic, political, social, and environmental costs of war, both in the U.S. and internationally. Contributors to the effort publish papers and regularly update figures that document the wars’ death tolls, the number of people displaced, the U.S. budgetary costs, and the geographic expanse of U.S. counterterrorism operations. To build public awareness of the research findings, Costs of War organizes extensive outreach to the media, lawmakers, and civil society groups. By prompting Americans to ask essential questions about the U.S. post-9/11 wars, the project works to build momentum towards reversing entrenched patterns of U.S. militarism. Costs of War research has been featured hundreds of times on TV networks, radio stations, and in books and news articles including The Boston Globe, The Wall Street Journal, and USA Today. Costs of War research has become the go-to source for media outlets, and President Joe Biden cited the project in his speech regarding the Afghanistan military withdrawal. US Peace Prize nominee, 2022.

Dayton International Peace Museum

Founded in 2003, the museum contributes to a local, national, and international culture of peace through exhibits, a blog, events, and Peace Hero stories that emphasize nonviolent choices. The historic Pollack House, home of the museum, houses permanent and rotating exhibits, a host of peace activities, special events, and conferences that focus on changing our culture of violence to a culture of peace. This organization also hosts the annual Dayton Peace Accords 5K Walk/Run and a Summer Peace Camp and other projects including "Peace Labyrinth: Quilting the Golden Rule."

Friends Committee on National Legislation
Founded in 1943, FCNL is a national, nonpartisan Quaker organization that lobbies Congress and the administration to advance their priorities of peace, justice, environmental stewardship, and a world free of war and threat of war. They work with a grassroots advocacy network of tens of thousands of people across the country. FCNL played a pivotal role in helping to create the Peace Corps and promoting the slogan “War is Not the Answer” through signs and bumper stickers; this message spread quickly and widely on the internet. Recent issues include Middle East and Iran, Nuclear Weapons, Peacebuilding, and U.S. Wars and Militarism. Their website offers advocacy resources, events, and latest updates.

United for Justice with Peace
UJP (2001-2021) was a coalition of peace and justice organizations in the Greater Boston region. It opposed all wars, the use of military and economic aggression, U.S. support for the Israeli occupation of the West Bank and Gaza, economic sanctions against Iraq, and U.S. support for repressive regimes. The focus was to redirect human energy and material resources to the basic needs of healthcare, education, and affirmative social supports. An online community encouraged people to learn about and participate in a variety of activities and events including lectures, films, vigils, protests, work groups, meetings, and Campaigns. Members were encouraged to participate in a discussion listserv as well as to browse forums, blogs, and news.

United National Antiwar Coalition
UNAC’s goal is to bring together organizations and movements to unify people to fight against war and injustice at home and abroad. The coalition, founded in 2010, opposes all U.S. wars and interventions and defends civil liberties, using mass mobilization as a means to effect change. It supports and/or organizes campaigns including “People’s Mobilization to Stop the US War Machine,” “Venezuelan Embassy Protectors Collective Defense,” “Hands off Venezuela: No Coup, No War, No Sanctions,” and “Hands Off Syria Coalition.” Other actions include participating in demonstrations and rallies, issuing statements and reports, a conference, a blog, and petition drives.

US Peace Memorial Foundation, Inc.
This tax-exempt 501(c)(3) Foundation, established in 2005, directs a nationwide effort to honor Americans who work for peace by publishing the US Peace Registry, awarding the annual US Peace Prize, and planning for the US Peace Memorial as a national monument in Washington, DC. These educational projects help move the United States toward a culture of peace by recognizing and honoring the thoughtful and courageous Americans and U.S. organizations that have taken a public stand against one or more U.S. wars or who have devoted their time, energy, and other resources to finding peaceful solutions to international conflicts. The foundation celebrates these role models to inspire other Americans to speak out against war and to work for peace.

Veterans For Peace
VFP, founded in 1985, is an organization of military veterans and allies with chapters in the U.S., U.K., Ireland, Mexico, Korea, Okinawa, and Vietnam. Veterans’ voices are used to educate the public on the true causes and costs of wars by publishing a newsletter; sponsoring the Golden Rule peace boat, which provides education about nuclear dangers; and using the Vietnam Full Disclosure Campaign to counter the Pentagon’s efforts to rewrite the history of that war. Its members work to heal the wounds of war in veterans and civilians through the Iraq Water Project, support for cleanup of undetonated bombs, and advocacy for victims of Agent Orange. Some of the organization’s projects are to end and prevent wars through campaigns against military recruiting in schools, promote the original meaning of Armistice Day, Veterans Challenge Islamophobia, public actions to oppose drone warfare, concerts, poetry contests, and celebrate the U.N. International Day of Peace. Other actions include legislative advocacy on war, peace, and the military budget; videos; and the Peace at Home, Peace Abroad project that addresses militarization of police. The website has downloadable brochures, images, and handouts as well as a store. The organization also hosts an annual national convention. Founding Member, US Peace Memorial Foundation. US Peace Prize recipient, “In recognition of heroic efforts to expose the causes and costs of war and to prevent and end armed conflict,” 2016.

Voices For Creative Nonviolence
VCNV (2005-2020) was committed to strategic campaigns that involved active nonviolent resistance to U.S. war-making. Its members have marched and engaged in acts of civil disobedience, often resulting in arrest and imprisonment, including occupying offices of legislators and entering military bases to protest the wars. They have traveled to war zones to contact peace activists and bear witness to the effects of U.S. war-making on ordinary civilians. Educational projects include Drone Activism, Shut Down Guantanamo, Peace with Russia, Peace with Iran, Action for Yemen, and Abolishing Nuclear Weapons. The Afghanistan program includes a Duvet Project for destitute families, Street Kids School, and educational Videos from Afghanistan. Other activities are a newsletter, a schedule of events, books and DVDs, and a speakers bureau. Founding Member, US Peace Memorial Foundation, 2020.

Walpole Peace and Justice Group
Founded in 1981, this group is committed to promoting peace and justice in the community and the larger world through education, study, witness, advocacy, and action. Activities include holding peace vigils against war and injustice, sponsoring speakers and authors, showing and discussing film documentaries, collaborating with other peace activist groups, and communicating with the public and government representatives. Issues of concern have included the 1984 Nuclear Freeze Campaign and opposition to the Iraq and Afghanistan Wars. Founding Member, US Peace Memorial Foundation.

Whatcom Peace and Justice Center
WRL is a grassroots organization centered on social justice and resisting war and militarism, both abroad and at home. The group was born out of the longest-running weekly peace vigil in the United States, operating under the sponsorship of the Bellingham Friends Committee until it received its own 501(c)(3) status in 2002. Activities and resources include an Alternatives to Military Service program, which makes yearly visits to all schools in Whatcom County; workshops and expert speakers; a peace library; direct action campaigns; a bi-weekly newsletter; a community blog; an annual fundraiser for International Day of Peace; and being a member of the Washington Against Nuclear Weapons
coalition. The physical space of the center also works as a community hub. US Peace Prize

Whitefeather Peace House
Founded in 2005 in the spirit of nonviolence, in the spirit of Dorothy Day, in the spirit of Larry Cloud Morgan (Whitefeather of the Ojibwe), and in the spirit of nonviolent resistance to war, militarism, and injustice, the group conducts educational roundtables, provides meeting space for groups grounded in nonviolence, and helps to organize events. When possible, the house offers overnight hospitality to traveling nonviolent resisters.

The Workable World Trust
Founded in 2014, the Trust disseminates and promotes proposals for a more workable system of global governance including improved decision-making and program execution within the United Nations and other global governance agencies. While it focuses on the proposals of its founder, Dr. Schwartzberg, published in Transforming the United Nations System: Designs for a Workable World, it will also support additional proposals and initiatives. The trust has endowed two annual graduate fellowships for students at the University of Minnesota and organized an international conference, “Creating a Workable World,” at the university’s Humphrey School of Public Affairs in October 2015. Founding Member, US Peace Memorial Foundation.

World BEYOND War
Founded in 2014, WBW is a grassroots, global network of activists, chapters, and affiliated organizations that advocate for war abolition. This nonviolent movement strives to end war and establish a just and sustainable peace. They work to debunk the myths that war is inevitable, just, necessary, or beneficial, and they advocate for an “alternative global security system” based on demilitarizing security, managing conflict nonviolently, and creating a culture of peace. Peace education, a core pillar of WBW’s work, outlines the economic, environmental, democratic, cultural, and moral downsides of war and preparations for war. Educational offerings include the book A Global Security System: An Alternative to War, a daily Peace Almanac, the Study War No More discussion and action guide, online courses, fact sheets, newsletters, podcasts, webinars, a Speakers Bureau, billboards, mapping militarism charts, a video library, and a global events map.
WBW’s grassroots campaigns focus on weapons divestment and closing military bases around the world as critical steps toward dismantling the war machine. Other actions include a store, a No to NATO - Yes to Peace Festival, an annual and global #NoWar conference, and a Declaration of Peace, which has been signed by individuals and organizations in 175 countries worldwide. Founding Member, US Peace Memorial Foundation. US Peace Prize nominee, 2015, 2019, 2020, and 2021. US Peace Prize recipient, “For exceptional global advocacy and creative peace education to end war and dismantle the war machine,” 2021.

World Can’t Wait
WCW is a national movement founded in 2005 to organize people to repudiate, stop, and demand prosecution for criminal acts by our government including occupations of Iraq and Afghanistan, the global “war of terror,” torture, rendition, spying, and political repression. The group holds protests and publishes ads in national and local media. Campaigns include War Criminals Watch to protest against war criminals when they come to a community, Crimes are Crimes - No Matter Who Does Them, and We Are Not Your Soldiers, an anti-military recruiters campaign.
