The American Friends Service Committee
AFSC, a Quaker organization founded in 1917, focuses on building lasting peace with justice. The organization draws people from many backgrounds and countries into work to prevent and end conflict, establish fair and equitable economies, accountable governments and systems, and develop healthy, inclusive societies. AFSC works to end and prevent wars, heal individuals and communities after conflict, and create just conditions that make violence obsolete. Examples of this organization’s activities include work on the truth and reconciliation process in Burundi, youth film festival, art exhibits such as Eyes Wide Open and Windows and Mirrors that expose the human costs of war, a framework for foreign policy, advocacy work to reduce the military budget and increase funding for real community needs, online activism, and various other educational programs and sponsored events. AFSC received the Nobel Peace Prize in 1947, along with British Quakers, on behalf of all Quakers’ efforts to heal the wounds of war. US Peace Prize nominee, 2014.

The Center for Constitutional Rights
CCR, founded in 1966, is a non-profit legal and educational organization committed to the creative use of law as a positive force for social change. The organization understands that U.S. militarism does not advance human rights. The organization litigates, advocates, and supports cases that deal with an array of issues connected to militarism and war, including targeting killing in Al-Aulaqi v. Panetta, private military contractor misconduct at Abu Ghraib, and holding high-ranking officials accountable for their involvement in the U.S. torture program. It joined with Iraqi human rights organizations, U.S. veterans and allies to launch a joint initiative, Right to Heal, demanding that the human rights impact of the war in Iraq be assessed and concrete action be taken towards rehabilitation and reparations for those impacted by the war’s lasting effects. The organization has published books, articles, and reports about wars and the issues they have raised including The Trial of Donald Rumsfeld: A Prosecution by Book, Articles of Impeachment against George W. Bush, and Amend the War Powers Resolution. CCR has received awards and grants including the National Peacemaker Award, the Lennon Ono Grant for Peace and the War Resisters League Peace Award.

Christian Peacemaker Teams
Founded in 1988, CPT arose from a call in 1984 for Christians to devote the same discipline and self-sacrifice to nonviolent peacemaking that armies devote to war. To promote nonviolent alternatives to war, the organization places violence-reduction teams in crisis situations and militarized areas, around the world, at the invitation of local peace and human rights workers, therefore embracing the vision of unarmed intervention waged by committed peacemakers. Actions include webinars and campaigns, non-violence training, books, and other literature. The organization sends delegations worldwide to help communities that are victims of violent oppression and/or human rights violations.

CODEPINK: Women For Peace
A women-initiated grassroots movement founded in 2002, CODEPINK works to end U.S.-funded wars and occupations, to challenge militarism globally, and to redirect our resources into healthcare, education, green jobs, and other life-affirming activities. The group opposes the U.S. war in Afghanistan, Venezuela and other countries, U.S economic sanctions, the detention center at Guantanamo, U.S. support for the Israeli occupation of Palestine and repressive regimes, and advocates divesting from the U.S war machine and boycotting Saudi Arabia. They organize protests, vigils, educational programs, congressional briefings, marches, online campaigns, and other events. Rooted in a network of local organizers, online supporters and donors, with an emphasis on joy and humor, their tactics include satire, street theater, visuals, civil resistance, directly challenging decision-makers in government and corporations, and of course, wearing pink. Campaigns have included protests at the CIA Director’s Senate confirmation hearing and the president’s national security speech at the National Defense University, hand delivered “Women Say No War on Iran” petition to the president’s spouse, “War is Not Green,” “Close Guantanamo,” “ Arrest the War Criminals,” “Women Say NO to War,” Camp Casey, “New Good Neighbor Policy,” “Mother’s Day for Peace,” “ Peace Positions for Presidential Candidates,” “Stop Hate/Dump Trump,” “International Day of Action: No War With Iran,” cultivating a “Local Peace Economy,” and other actions including projecting antiwar messages onto a Trump hotel, a blog, and promoting books: Drone Warfare: Killing by Remote Control and Stop the Next War Now! Effective Responses to Violence and Terrorism. See tenth anniversary video for more details. Founding Member, US Peace Memorial Foundation. US Peace Prize recipient, “In recognition of inspirational antiwar leadership and creative grassroots activism,” 2014

Consistent Life
Founded in 1987, Consistent Life is an international network that connects issues, builds bridges, and strengthens the case against each kind of socially-approved killing, including war, by consistently opposing them all by placing ads in national and local media, calls to Congress, marches, and videos. Members seek a revolution in thinking and feeling, an affirmation of peace and nonviolence, an infinite gentleness, a value for the life, happiness and welfare of every person, and political and structural changes to bring this about.

Jewish Voice for Peace
JVP is a community of activists inspired by the Jewish tradition to work together for peace, social justice, equality, human rights, respect for international law, and a U.S. foreign policy based on these ideals.
Founded in 1996, the organization provides a voice for Jews and allies who believe that peace in the Middle East will be achieved through justice and full equality for both Palestinians and Israelis. JVP has led efforts to oppose the wars on Gaza, and urged members of Congress to support the Iran Nuclear Deal. Actions have included issuing policy statements, fact sheets, educational videos, ads and posters, protest demonstrations, petition, and press releases. Examples of campaigns include: “Deadly Exchange: Ending US-Israel Police Partnerships, Reclaiming Safety,” “Divestment from Hewlett-Packard,” and “Network Against Islamophobia.” US Peace Prize nominee, 2019.

Political Psychology Research, Inc.
PPRI, founded in 2007, is a non-profit corporation dedicated to research in the public interest, specifically on psychological traits, attitudes, etc. related to government, politics, peace and empowering the people to have an effective voice in these issues. Some research findings conclude that warmongering-proneness and violence-proneness can be reliably measured as a psychological trait using questionnaires. These studies have led to a practical tool for identifying dangerous, warmongering-prone political leaders so that citizens can avoid voting them into office. Projects include Research highlights of the author’s studies, publications, and a model for a new democracy.

Veterans For Peace
VFP, founded in 1985, is an organization of military veterans and allies with chapters in the U.S., U.K., Ireland, Mexico, Korea, Okinawa, and Vietnam. Veterans’ voices are used to educate the public on the true causes and costs of wars by publishing a newsletter, sponsoring the Golden Rule peace boat, which provides education about nuclear dangers; and using the Vietnam Full Disclosure Campaign to counter the Pentagon’s efforts to rewrite the history of that war. Its members work to heal the wounds of war in veterans and civilians through the Iraq Water Project, support for cleanup of undetonated bombs, and advocacy for victims of Agent Orange. Some of the organization’s projects are to end and prevent wars through campaigns against military recruiting in schools, promote the original meaning of Armistice Day, Veterans Challenge Islamophobia, public actions to oppose drone warfare, concerts, poetry contests, and celebrate the U.N. International Day of Peace. Other actions include legislative advocacy on war, peace, and the military budget; videos; and the Peace at Home, Peace Abroad project that addresses militarization of police. The website has downloadable brochures, images, and handouts as well as a store. The organization also hosts an annual national convention.

Whatcom Peace and Justice Center
WPJC is a grassroots organization centered on social justice and resisting war and militarism, both abroad and at home. The group was born out of the longest-running weekly peace vigil in the United States, operating under the sponsorship of the Bellingham Friends Committee until it received its own 501(c)(3) status in 2002. Activities and resources include an Alternatives to Military Service program, which makes yearly visits to all schools in Whatcom County; workshops and expert speakers; a peace library; direct action campaigns; a bi-weekly newsletter; a community blog; an annual fundraiser for International Day of Peace; and being a member of the Washington Against Nuclear Weapons coalition. The physical space of the center also works as a community hub. US Peace Prize nominee, 2020.

The Workable World Trust

Founded in 2014, the Trust disseminates and promotes proposals for a more workable system of global governance including improved decision-making and program execution within the United Nations and other global governance agencies. While it focuses on the proposals of its founder, Dr. Schwartzberg, published in Transforming the United Nations System: Designs for a Workable World, it will also support additional proposals and initiatives. The trust has endowed two annual graduate fellowships for students at the University of Minnesota and organized an international conference, “Creating a Workable World,” at the university’s Humphrey School of Public Affairs in October 2015. Founding Member, US Peace Memorial Foundation.

World BEYOND War

Founded in 2014, WBW is a grassroots, global network of activists, chapters, and affiliated organizations that advocate for war abolition. This nonviolent movement strives to end war and establish a just and sustainable peace. They work to debunk the myths that war is inevitable, just, necessary, or beneficial, and they advocate for an “alternative global security system” based on demilitarizing security, managing conflict nonviolently, and creating a culture of peace. Peace education, a core pillar of WBW’s work, outlines the economic, environmental, democratic, cultural and moral downsides of war and preparations for war. Educational offerings include the book A Global Security System: An Alternative to War, a daily Peace Almanac, the Study War No More discussion and action guide, online courses, fact sheets, newsletters, podcasts, webinars, a Speakers Bureau, billboards, mapping militarism charts, a video library, and a global events map. WBW’s grassroots campaigns focus on weapons divestment and closing military bases around the world as critical steps toward dismantling the war machine. Other actions include a store, a No to NATO - Yes to Peace Festival, an annual and global NoWar conference, and a Declaration of Peace, which has been signed by individuals and organizations in 175 countries worldwide. Founding Member, US Peace Memorial Foundation. US Peace Prize nominee, 2015, 2019, and 2020.
